

Online Exam Preparation Courses

Trinity ISE (INTEGRATED SKILLS IN ENGLISH)

Transferable skills for study and employment Trinity's Integrated Skills in English (ISE) is a contemporary four skills (reading, writing, speaking and listening) qualification recognised by governments and institutions as providing reliable evidence of English language proficiency. Preparing for ISE helps develop authentic communicative and transferable skills that are required for academic study and employability, participating in interactive discussions and presenting on topics of personal interest.

Outcomes

By the end of the course you will know how to:

- Have a good understanding of the skills and language required for the exam
 - Communicate effectively in a English speaking environment
- Work, socialise in a cross-cultural environment and participate in discussions
 - Practise through example exam tasks and teacher's feedback

Sample syllabus

Language Functions: Describing past actions in the indefinite and recent past, the future, informing and expressing intention Predicting and expressing certainty and uncertainty Giving reasons, opinions and preferences

Expressing obligation, Asking for information and opinions. Grammar: Present Perfect tense including use with for, since, ever, never, just, connecting clauses using because Will referring to the future for informing and predicting Adjectives and adverbials of quantity Expressions of preference Zero and first conditionals, using if and when Present Continuous tense for future use Past Continuous tense Modals Infinitive of purpose

Language Functions:

Initiating and maintaining the conversation Expressing and expanding ideas and opinions Highlighting advantages and disadvantages Speculating Giving advice Expressing agreement and disagreement Eliciting further information Establishing common ground

Grammar: Second and third conditionals Simple Passive Relative clauses Modals and phrases used to give advice and make suggestions Modals used to express possibility and uncertainty.